DAMA Philadelphia – Delaware Valley BYLAWS

I. INTRODUCTION

This document contains the bylaws that are used to operate the DAMA Philadelphia-Delaware Valley chapter of DAMA International.

Each board member must use this information in conducting the business of DAMA Philadelphia – Delaware Valley in their respective positions. It is intended to provide the background information new board members need to serve as a board member and to highlight changes that have occurred to the bylaws during the existence of DAMA Philadelphia – Delaware Valley.

Note that DAMA – Philadelphia-Delaware Valley will be referred to as “the Chapter” for ease of expression.

II. DAMA Philadelphia Delaware Valley MISSION, VISION, PURPOSE AND GOALS

- Mission: DAMA Philadelphia- Delaware Valley is a not-for-profit, vendor-independent,<sup>1</sup> association of technical and business professionals dedicated to advancing the concepts and practices of information and data management.
- Vision: DAMA Philadelphia- Delaware Valley is an essential resource to those who engage in information and data management.
- Purpose: DAMA Philadelphia- Delaware Valley promotes the understanding, development and practice of managing data and information as key enterprise assets to support the organization.
- Goals: DAMA Philadelphia- Delaware Valley’s goals are to:
  - Help practitioners become more knowledgeable and skilled in the information and data management profession
  - Influence practices, education and certification in the information and data management profession
  - Support DAMA members and their organizations to address their information and data management needs
  - Form alliances with other organizations with similar principles to strengthen the profession

<sup>1</sup> In this context, “vendor” indicates any provider of data management goods or services to DAMA International members or potential members and their employers. This use of the term is not to be confused with the term “vendor to DAMA” used elsewhere in this document.

III. Meetings – DAMA Philadelphia

The Board of Directors will determine the calendar of events including meetings each year after elections and may modify the calendar at any time as long as there is at least one meeting per calendar quarter. Each meeting will incorporate at least one educational session focusing on one or more topics in areas of enterprise data / information management.

Meeting content planning and execution is the responsibility of the VP of Programs and Education and any support staff for that office.

Event logistics are the responsibility of the VP of Operations and Arrangements and any support staff for that office, coordinated with the VP of Programs.

Meeting announcements and related marketing and communications are the responsibility of the VPs of Online Services (website), Marketing and Communications (media), Membership (registration and notification).

Meeting notices (dates, locations, speakers, topics, etc.) must be published at least 45 days in advance of each meeting to allow members and guests to register and to permit final arrangements to be made.

DAMA Philadelphia- Delaware Valley is a vendor neutral organization. As such, no sales presentations are permitted at any DAMA meeting or other event. All presentations must be given without sales orientation. Presentations by any vendor must be focused on the discussion of generic information not directly related to any specific software, hardware or methodologies sold by the vendor. However, should a vendor be asked to demonstrate a product in “production” mode or for a Vendor Day exhibition, sales-oriented presentations would be permitted.

4. An elected officer who becomes ineligible or unable to complete their duties during their term will vacate their office at a date determined by a majority vote of the Board of Directors
5. All candidates must attend all regularly scheduled meetings of the Chapter Board of Directors. “Proper attendance” is defined to mean that a board member/officer attends at least 2/3 of the meetings held during a calendar year.

VI.B Nominations and Elections

1. The Past President serves as chairperson of the Elections Committee. Should the Past President be unable to serve in this role, the Board of Directors will appoint a substitute to administer the election
2. The Elections Committee will publish the annual Election Calendar indicating the dates for all election milestones for the upcoming election. This announcement will be published no later than March 1 of each year. In this announcement, a call for candidates for the open offices will be made with the schedule for the nomination and election process included.
3. A nominee may seek a maximum of one office in any one election. The Elections Committee will certify the nominee’s eligibility (chapter membership, platform and profile, etc.)
4. Any member of the Board of Directors who wishes to run for another office does not have to resign their current position until they are elected to a new position. If they are elected to a new position, the President will appoint a person to fill the vacancy for one year
5. The Past President /chair of Elections must receive nominations by the deadline as published in the Election Calendar
6. If no nominations are received, the Board of Directors will seek volunteers to fill the open positions.

VI.C Balloting Section

1. If there are no contested positions, (positions for which more than one person is nominated), no balloting is required. The nominee will automatically take office the following June 1
2. If more than one nomination for a position is received, the choice among nominees will be put to a vote of the DAMA members as follows
  - For all positions, a ballot showing all nominees, the office and a short profile, will be sent to each the Chapter member on or before the date indicated in the Election Calendar
  - Each the Chapter member may submit only one ballot, signed by the Chapter member and dated appropriately. Corporate members will complete one ballot, with one designated representative signing for the corporate membership.

- To be valid, all ballots must be returned to the Elections Committee by the indicated date in the Election Calendar
  - Ballot counts will be certified by the chairperson of the Elections Committee in conjunction with one other member of the committee
  - The winner of each position will be that nominee receiving a majority of the votes cast for that position
  - In case of a tie, the winner will be determined by majority vote of all elected officers
3. Any office that is left vacant after the election process will be filled by appointment by the elected Board of Directors.

The incoming President of the Board of Directors will announce the composition of the Board of Directors within two weeks of the closing of the Election process. At that time a communication showing all board members' names, their office and a short profile of each officer will be sent to each the Chapter member and announced through other media as appropriate.

VII. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

VII.A Right to Indemnification through DAMA International

Each person who was, or is, threatened to be made a party to any actual or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal by reason of the fact that he or she is, or was, a Director or Officer of DAMA International or a DAMA Chapter, shall be indemnified and held harmless by DAMA International to the full extent permitted by applicable law as then in effect against all expense, liability, and loss including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and penalties actually and reasonably incurred by such person, and such indemnification shall continue to a person who has ceased to be a Director or Officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, and administrators; provided that with respect to proceedings to enforce the right of indemnification, DAMA International shall indemnify only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of DAMA International. The Board of Directors may authorize payment in advance to a Director or Officer for expenses incurred in defending a proceeding provided that the Director or Officer seeking payment provides to the Board of Directors in advance of the final disposition of said proceeding an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if said Director or Officer shall ultimately be determined not entitled to be indemnified.
